ENACTED by the Parliament of Malaysia as follows:

PART I

PRELIMINARY

Short title and commencement

1. (1) This Act may be cited as the Sexual Offences against Children Act 2017.

(2) This Act comes into operation on a date to be appointed by the Minister by notification in the Gazette.

Application

2. (1) This Act shall apply to a child who is under the age of eighteen years and where this Act relates to any other written law, to a child of such age as specified in such written law.

(2) Any reference to a child in respect of any offence under this Act, or any offence specified in the Schedule where the victim is a child shall include a person whom an accused believes is a person of or under the age as specified in the respective provisions of such offences.

Extra-territorial application

3. If any offence under this Act, or any offence specified in the Schedule where the victim is a child is committed by a Malaysian citizen against any child in any place outside Malaysia, he may be dealt with in respect of such offence as if the offence was committed at any place within Malaysia.

PART II

OFFENCES RELATING TO CHILD PORNOGRAPHY

Child pornography

4. In this Act—

- (a) “child pornography” means any representation in whole or in part, whether visual, audio or written or the combination of visual, audio or written, by any means including but not limited to electronic, mechanical, digital, optical or magnetic means, or manually crafted, or the combination of any means—
- (i) of a child engaged in sexually explicit conduct;
 - (ii) of a person appearing to be a child engaged in sexually explicit conduct;
 - (iii) of realistic or graphic images of a child engaged in sexually explicit conduct; or
 - (iv) of realistic or graphic images of a person appearing to be a child engaged in sexually explicit conduct; and

- (b) “sexually explicit conduct” includes actual or simulated of the following:
- (i) sexual intercourse, or lewd acts including physical contact involving genital to genital, oral to genital, anal to genital, or oral to anal, between persons of the same or opposite sex;
 - (ii) bestiality;
 - (iii) masturbation;
 - (iv) sadistic or masochistic abuse in a sexual context;
 - (v) exhibition for sexual purpose of the genital, buttock, breast, pubic area or anus; and

- (e) a coach; and
- (f) a public servant of whatever rank in the course of his duty under any written law in respect of the child.

PART VI

CAPACITY AND EVIDENCE OF CHILD WITNESS

Presumption as to capacity of a child witness

17. Notwithstanding anything contrary in any other written law, in any proceedings against any person relating to any offence under this Act, or any offence specified in the Schedule where the victim is a child, a child is presumed to be competent to give evidence unless the court thinks otherwise.

Evidence of child witness

18. Notwithstanding anything contrary in any other written law, in any proceedings against any person relating to any offence under this Act, or any offence specified in the Schedule where the victim is a child, the court may convict such person of such offence on the basis of the uncorroborated evidence of a child, given upon oath or otherwise.

PART VII

MISCELLANEOUS

Failure to give information

19. Notwithstanding section 13 of the Criminal Procedure Code [Act 593], any person who fails to give information of the commission of or the intention of any other person to commit any offence under this Act, or any offence specified in the Schedule where the victim is a child, to the officer in charge of the nearest police station, commits an offence and shall, on conviction, be liable to a fine not exceeding five thousand ringgit.

Presumption of age of a child

20. It is not a defence to a charge for any offence under this Act, or any offence specified in the Schedule where the victim is a child, that an accused believed that the age of the child is or more than that as specified in the respective provisions of such offences at the time the offence is alleged to have been committed unless the accused took all reasonable steps to ascertain the age of the child.

Abetment

21. Any person who abets the commission of any offence punishable under this Act shall, if the act abetted is committed in consequence of the abetment, be punished with the punishment provided for the offence.

Evidence of agent provocateur admissible

22. (1) Notwithstanding any law or rule of law to the contrary, in any proceedings against any person relating to any offence under this Act, or any offence specified in the Schedule where the victim is a child, no agent provocateur shall be presumed to be unworthy of credit by reason only of his having attempted to commit or to abet, or having abetted or having been engaged in a criminal conspiracy to commit, such offence if the main purpose of such attempt, abetment or engagement was to secure evidence against such person.

(2) Notwithstanding any law or rule of law to the contrary, a conviction of any offence under this Act, or of any offence specified in the Schedule where the victim is a child, solely on the uncorroborated evidence of any agent provocateur shall not be illegal and no such conviction shall be set aside merely because the court which tried the case has failed to refer in the grounds of its judgment to the need to warn itself against the danger of convicting on such evidence.

Offence by body corporate

23. If any offence under this Act, or any offence specified in the Schedule where the victim is a child has been committed by a body corporate, any person who at the time of the commission of the offence was a director, manager, secretary or other similar officer of the body corporate, or was purporting to act in any such capacity, or was in any manner responsible for the management of any of the affairs of such body corporate, or was assisting in such management, shall also be guilty of that offence unless he proves that the offence was committed without his knowledge, consent or connivance, and that he had exercised all due diligence to prevent the commission of the offence as he ought to have exercised, having regard to the nature of his functions in that capacity and to all the circumstances.

Non-application of sections 173A, 293 and 294 of the Criminal Procedure Code

24. Sections 173A, 293 and 294 of the Criminal Procedure Code shall not apply in respect of any offence under this Act, or any offence specified in the Schedule where the victim is a child, if the person convicted of such offence is of or above the age of eighteen years.

Provision regarding whipping

25. Notwithstanding paragraph 289(c) of the Criminal Procedure Code, if a person convicted of any offence under this Act is a male whom the court considers to be more than fifty years of age, he may still be punishable with whipping.

Rehabilitative counselling

26. (1) The court may, in addition to any punishment imposed for any offence under this Act, or any offence specified in the Schedule where the victim is a child, order period of rehabilitative counselling on the person convicted of such offence within the period of his detention.

(2) The rehabilitative counselling ordered under subsection (1) shall be under the Minister charged with the responsibility for prison.

Police supervision

27. (1) Notwithstanding subsection 295(1) of the Criminal Procedure Code, whether or not he has previously been convicted of any offence, when a person is convicted of any offence under this Act, or of any offence specified in the Schedule where the victim is a child, the court shall direct that he be subject to the supervision of the police for a period of not less than one year and not more than three years commencing immediately after the expiration of the sentence passed on him.

(2) When any person subject to the supervision of the police under subsection (1) is, while still subject to such supervision, sentenced to a term of imprisonment within Malaysia, any term spent in prison shall be excluded from the period of supervision.

Schedule

28. The Minister may, upon consultation with the Public Prosecutor, amend the Schedule by order published in the Gazette, including to exclude or include any offence of any description under any written law.
