A BILL

intituled

An Act to provide for the sharing of data within the control of a public sector agency with other public sector agency, establishment of the National Data Sharing Committee, functions and powers of the Director General of the National Digital Department in relation to data sharing and other related matters.

ENACTED by the Parliament of Malaysia as follows:

PART I

PRELIMINARY

Short title and commencement

- 1. (1) This Act may be cited as the Data Sharing Act 2024.
- (2) This Act comes into operation on a date to be appointed by the Minister by notification in the Gazette.

This Act binds Federal Government

2. This Act shall bind the Federal Government.

Interpretation

3. In this Act, unless the context otherwise requires—

"public sector agency" means—

- (a) the agency in charge of the public services referred to in Clause (1) of Article 132 of the Federal Constitution, except the services referred to in paragraphs (f) and (g); and
- (b) any statutory authority exercising powers vested in it by a federal law;

"data" means any facts, statistics, instructions, concepts or other information in a form that is capable of being communicated, analyzed or processed, whether by an individual or a computer or other means;

"document" has the same meaning assigned to it under the Evidence Act 1950 [Act 56];

"data integration" means the process of combination of data;

"Committee" means the National Data Sharing Committee established under section 5;

"data analytics work" means the examination and analysis of data for the purpose of drawing conclusions as a result of that examination and analysis;

"Director General" means the Director General of the National Digital Department;

"Minister" means the Minister charged with the responsibility for digital related matters;

"data provider" means the public sector agency that shares data to a data recipient under Part IV;

"data recipient" means the public sector agency to which data is shared under Part IV.

Pillars of data sharing

- 4. (1) This Act shall be read together with the provisions of other written laws which allow for data sharing to be made, subject to the conditions provided under such laws, and the provisions of this Act shall be in addition to, and not in derogation of, the provisions of the relevant written laws.
- (2) Any person who shares data under this Act is deemed to have made such disclosure pursuant to the provisions specified in column (3) under the laws specified in column (2) of the Schedule.
- (3) Any data of the public sector agency shall be dealt with in accordance with the Official Secrets Act 1972 [Act 88] and any directives relating to the security of official document issued by the Government.

PART II

NATIONAL DATA SHARING COMMITTEE

- (5) The subcommittee shall meet at the time, place and in the manner as the chairman of the subcommittee may determine.
- (6) The subcommittee may invite any person to attend meetings of the subcommittee to advise the subcommittee on any matter under discussion.
 - (7) The subcommittee may determine its own procedure.

PART III

DUTIES AND POWERS OF DIRECTOR GENERAL

Duties and powers of Director General

- 11. (1) The Director General shall have the following duties and powers:
 - (a) to implement the policies and strategies relating to data sharing formulated by the Committee;
 - (b) to coordinate and facilitate data sharing under this Act;
 - (c) to advise and make recommendations to the Committee on matters relating to data sharing under this Act;

- (d) to require any person to submit any relevant information or document for the purpose of performing its duties and powers under this Act;
- (e) to issue circulars or guidelines for the purposes of this Act; and
- (f) to carry out any other duties as directed by the Committee.
- (2) The Director General shall have all such powers as may be necessary for, or in connection with, or reasonably incidental to, the carrying out of his duties and powers under this Act.

PART IV

DATA SHARING

Request for data sharing

- 12. (1) Any public sector agency may, in such manner as the Director General may determine, request to another public sector agency for the sharing of data under the control of such other public sector agency.
 - (2) The request referred to in subsection (1) shall specify—
 - (a) the data requested;
 - (b) the purpose for which the data is requested;
 - (c) the public service agencies intended to be the data recipient and the data provider; and
 - (d) the manner of handling the data requested.
- (3) For the purposes of subsection (1), a public sector agency is taken to have control of data if the data is within the possession or custody of the public sector agency.

Purpose for which data may be shared

- 13. A request for sharing of data may be made and granted for the following purposes:
 - (a) to enhance the efficiency or effectiveness of policies, programme management or service planning and delivery by public sector agencies;
 - (b) to reduce or prevent threat to the life, health or safety of a person, or threat to public health or safety;
 - (c) to respond to a public emergency;
 - (d) in the public interest; or
 - (e) such other purposes as the Committee may determine.

Evaluation and response by public sector agency receiving request for data sharing

- 14. (1) The public sector agency to whom a request is made for data sharing under section 13 shall, after receiving the request, make the following evaluation:
 - (a) whether the purpose for which the data is requested warrants the sharing of the data;
 - (b) whether the sharing of the data is against the public interest; and
 - (c) whether the public sector agency requesting the data has appropriate security and technical safeguards in place to ensure that the shared data is not subject to unauthorized access and use.
- (2) After making the evaluation under subsection (1), the public sector agency to whom the request for data sharing is made shall, within fourteen days from the date of receiving the request respond as to whether the data requested may be provided, with or without conditions, or is refused under section 15.

- (3) Where the response referred to in subsection (2) is not possible to be provided within the period specified, the public sector agency to whom the request for data sharing is made shall inform the public sector agency making the request—
 - (a) the reason as to why the response cannot be provided within the period specified; and
 - (b) the period within which such response will be provided.
- (4) The response and information referred to in this section shall be provided in such manner as the Director General may determine.

Refusal to share data requested

- 15. The public sector agency to whom a request for sharing of data is made under section 12 may refuse to share some or all of the data requested based on the following reasons:
 - (a) the data requested could reasonably be expected to disclose, or enable a person to ascertain, the identity of a confidential source of information relating to the enforcement or administration of law:
 - (b) the data requested could reasonably be expected to disclose the existence or identity of a person included in a witness protection programme;
 - (c) the data requested could reasonably be expected to disclose investigative measures or procedures, including intelligence gathering methodologies, investigative techniques or technologies, covert practices or information sharing arrangements between law enforcement agencies;
 - (d) the sharing of the data requested will constitute a breach of one or more of the following:
 - (i) the solicitor-client privilege or legal professional privilege;
 - (ii) an agreement or a contract;
 - (iii) an equitable obligation of confidence; or
 - (iv) an order of a court or tribunal;

- (e) the data requested involves one or more of the following:
 - (i) national security or defence;
 - (ii) the investigation of a breach, or possible breach, of any written law;
 - (iii) an inquest or inquiry into death; or
 - (iv) a proceeding before a court or tribunal;
- (f) the public sector agency believes on reasonable grounds that the sharing of the data requested would be likely to endanger the health, safety or welfare of one or more individuals:
- (g) the data requested is inconsistent with the purpose specified under section 13 and does not warrant the data to be shared;
- (h) the public sector agency requesting the data does not possess appropriate security and technical safeguards to ensure that the data to be shared is not subject to unauthorized access and use; or
- (i) any other reason as the Committee may determine.

Duty relating to data sharing

- 16. A data provider and data recipient shall—
 - (a) ensure that the shared data is managed and maintained in compliance with any legal requirements concerning its custody and control that are applicable to such data;
 - (b) take necessary measures to ensure the security and privacy of the data including—
 - (i) the protection of data from any loss, misuse, unauthorized or accidental modification, access or disclosure, alteration or destruction; and

- (ii) the preservation of rights of individuals relating to personal data protection;
- (c) keep record of all particulars relating to the shared data;
- (d) report any unauthorized sharing of data to the Director General; and
- (e) comply with such other requirements as the Committee may determine.

Duty of third party to protect shared data

- 17. (1) Where a data recipient arranges for any third party to conduct any data migration, data integration or data analytics work using the shared data under this Act, the data recipient shall ensure that the consent of the data provider is obtained before the data is handled by such third party.
- (2) The third party referred to in subsection (1) shall handle the data in compliance with this Act and the requirements relating to the security of the data applicable in respect of the shared data.
- (3) Any third party who contravenes subsection (2) commits an offence and shall, upon conviction, be liable to a fine not exceeding one million ringgit or imprisonment for a term not exceeding five years or to both.

Restriction on further use and disclosure of shared data

- 18. (1) Any officer or servant of a data recipient shall not use or disclose the shared data under this Act other than for the purpose for which the data is shared.
- (2) Any officer or servant of a data recipient who contravenes subsection (1) commits an offence and shall, upon conviction, be liable to a fine not exceeding one million ringgit or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding five years or to both.

Imposition of fees under other written law

19. The sharing of data under this Act may, where applicable, be subject to the payment of fees as may be imposed by the data provider under any other written law.

Sharing of open data

20. For the purpose of sharing of open data, any open data that is available freely by any public sector agency may be accessible and shared regardless whether a request is made under section 12 or not.

Duty to report particulars relating to data sharing

- 21. (1) A public sector agency shall provide a report in writing to the Director General on the following matters:
 - (a) the particulars of requests for data sharing made by the public sector agency;
 - (b) the response given relating to the request for data sharing;
 - (c) where the data requested is refused, the reason for such refusal; and
 - (d) any other information within the control of the public sector agency as the Director General may require.
- (2) The report referred to in subsection (1) shall be furnished from time to time as the Director General may require.

PART V

GENERAL

Powers of enforcement, inspection and investigation

22. For the purposes of this Act, a police officer not below the rank of sergeant shall have all the powers of a police officer of whatever rank as provided for in the Criminal Procedure Code [Act 593] relating to enforcement, inspection and investigation of any offence under this Act.

Obligation of secrecy

- 23. (1) Except for any of the purposes of this Act or for the purposes of any civil or criminal proceedings under any written law, any officer or servant of a public sector agency, whether during or after his tenure of office or employment, shall not disclose any information obtained by him in the course of his duties.
- (2) Any person who contravenes subsection (1) commits an offence and shall, upon conviction, be liable to a fine not exceeding one million ringgit or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding five years or to both.

Protection against suit and legal proceedings

24. No action, suit, prosecution or other proceedings shall be brought, instituted or maintained in any court against the Minister, any member of the Committee, the Director General or any officer or servant of a public sector agency on account of or in respect of any act, neglect or default done or omitted by him in the course of carrying out his duties under this Act unless it can be proven that the act, neglect or default was done or omitted in bad faith and without reasonable cause.

Prosecution

25. No prosecution for an offence under this Act shall be instituted except by or with the written consent of the Public Prosecutor.

Liability of director, etc., of statutory body

26. Where any person who commits an offence under this Act is a statutory body, a person who at the time of the commission of the offence was a director, compliance officer, manager, secretary or other similar officer of the statutory body or was purporting to act in the capacity or was in any manner or to any extent responsible for the management of any of the affairs of the statutory body or was assisting in its management—

- (a) may be charged severally or jointly in the same proceedings with the statutory body; and
- (b) if the statutory body is found guilty of the offence, shall be deemed to be guilty of the offence and shall be liable to the same punishment or penalty as an individual unless, having regard to the nature of his functions in that capacity and to all circumstances, he proves—
 - (i) that the offence was committed without his knowledge; or
 - (ii) that the offence was committed without his consent or connivance and that he had taken all reasonable precautions and exercised due diligence to prevent the commission of the offence.

Power to exempt

27. The Minister may, by order published in the Gazette, subject to such conditions or restrictions as he may consider necessary or expedient to impose, exempt any person or class of persons from any or all of the provisions of this Act.

Power to give directions

28. The Minister may give directions to the Director General consistent with the provisions of this Act and the Director General shall give effect to those directions.

Power to amend Schedule

29. The Minister may, after consultation with the Minister in charge with the responsibility for the relevant written laws, by order published in the Gazette, amend the Schedule.
